The Durant (Ind. Ter.) Times says of Mrs. Callie H. Howe: "She is a handsome attractive woman, splendidly educated, with natural intelligence written in every feature, and is a brilliant, earnest, enthusiastic lecturer. You have heard a grand old anthem rise, swell, fill the earth and heavens, then softly, sweetly die away, leaving you in a higher mental attitude, firmer of purpose, nobler, purer; such was the influence of this gifted speaker over her audiences, especially those women who had before heard and faintly comprehended the cry of suffering humanity for woman's work. She departed from the beaten track of temperance lecturers, gave us new and better thoughts, broadened our Christian view till the whole seething mass of humanity claimed our sympathies, and made us pity churchianity and reverence Christianity." Remember the date, Aug. 17, Methodist church at 8 o'clock.
